Positive Behavior Interventions and Strategies (PBIS)

PBIS at CHS!

Cowden-Herrick Schools are proud to be called a PBIS district. PBIS stands for Positive Behavior Interventions and Strategies. Our PBIS is a positive based program to encourage positive attitudes, behaviors and choices. It is implemented as a way to be proactive with behaviors instead of reacting when poor choices have been made.

Cowden-Herrick strives to help students become citizens who are respectful, responsible and ready to succeed in life.

BE RESPECTFUL!

BE RESPONSIBLE!

BE READY TO SUCCEED!

BE A HORNET!

- PBIS is based on common expectations for all students.
- PBIS expectations are posted in many areas in the school building.
- Expectations are all based on the desire to keep the people in our schools being respectful, responsible and ready.

WAYS WE REWARD/
PROMOTE PBIS AT CHS

- Buzz tickets are passed out when positive behavior is being modeled..
- Weekly drawings provide prizes for students exemplifying positive behavior.
- Quarterly prizes for all students earning a set number of tickets (number varies and increases with each quarter).
- Semester drawing of a large prize for one student.
